Ner Adonai nishmat adam

The spirit within is the lamp of God Eternal.

Proverbs 20:27

Yizkor Book of Remembrance 5784/2023

TEMPLE AKIBA
of CULVER CITY

Our light shines brighter together

Shed no tears for me
when you say kaddish.

But do not forget the magic moments we have known.

It was not perfect, or profound,
but it was life, which no other privilege can qualify.

Be joyous, trust me,
everything here is in order.

In the dust of time,
through the space of rainbows,

We shall meet again.

If some messenger were to come to us with the offer that death should be overthrown, but with the one inseparable condition that birth should also cease; if the existing generation were given the chance to live forever, but on the clear understanding that never again would there be a child, or a youth, or first love, never again new persons with new hopes, new ideas, new achievements; ourselves for always and never any others - could the answer be in doubt?

When we fear death's decree, let this bring us solace; the memory of loved ones who have gone before us; a vision of generations to come, through whom we reach far into the future - beyond our own lives.

“Alas for those that never sing, / But die with all their music in them!”

Let us treasure the time we have, and resolve to use it well, counting each moment precious - a chance to apprehend some truth, to experience some beauty, to conquer some evil, to ease some suffering, to love and be loved, to achieve something of lasting worth. There is promise within each of us that only we can fulfill. Let us live our lives so that someday it will be true to say of us: the world is a little better because, for just one moment, they lived in it.

By Herbert Samuel (1870-1963), adapted.

There are stars up above,
So far away we only see their light
long, long after the star itself is gone.
So it is with people that we loved -
Their memories keep shining ever brightly,
Though their time with us is done.

But the stars that light up
the darkest night,
These are the lights that guide us.
As we live our days, these are the ways we remember.

"You can shed tears that she is gone,
or you can smile because she has lived.

You can close your eyes and pray that she'll come back, or you can open your eyes and see all she's left.

Your heart can be empty because you can't see her, or you can be full of the love you shared.

You can turn your back on tomorrow
and live yesterday, or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday.

You can remember her only that she is gone, or you can cherish her memory and let it live on.

You can cry and close your mind,
be empty and turn your back.

Or you can do what she'd want:
smile, open your eyes, love and go on."

“When I die, give what’s left of me away
To children and old men that wait to die.

And if you need to cry,
Cry for your brother walking the street beside you
And when you need me,
Put your arms around anyone
And give to them what you need to give to me.

I want to leave you something,
Something better
Than words
Or sounds.

Look for me
In the people I’ve known or loved,
And if you cannot give me away,
At least let me live in your eyes
And not on your mind.

You can love me most
By letting hands touch hands
By letting bodies touch bodies
And by letting go of children
That need to be free.

Love doesn’t die,
People do.
So, when all that’s left of me
Is love,
Give me away”

“In the beginning of the year and when it ends; we remember them...”

– Rabbi Sylvan Kamens and Rabbi Jack Riemer

During this time of hope, reflection, and prayer, may the memories of your loved ones bring you peace.
